

Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training (RIDLT) EDI Claims Announcement

RIDLT FROI/SROI R3 EDI NEW Trading Partner Profile Registration System Available!

Date: 6/17/2020

Effective June 17, 2020 RIDLT is migrating to a New Trading Partner Profile Registration System. The transition to the new system requires that all Trading Partners submit a New Trading Partner Profile. The New Trading Partner Profile submission will be reviewed by RIDLT to compare the existing Trading Partner Profile on record to the New Trading Partner Profile submission. Any discrepancies between the new and existing Trading Partner Profiles (excluding contact information) will be communicated back to the preparer.

All Trading Partners are asked to complete the New Trading Partner Profile submission into the new system by September 28, 2020.

Before any updates can be made to Trading Partner Profile, you must first complete the New Trading Partner Profile submission using the new system. Please review the Registration Instructions for additional information on how to create the Trading Partner Profile using this new Trading Partner Profile Registration System.

The New Trading Partner Profile Registration system link will be shown on the enhanced RIDLT EDI Claims website as follows effective June 17, 2020:
